

Longwood Garden's 1906 Restaurant "Garden to Table" Recognition

A review of the garden to table efforts put forth by the Restaurant Associates team at 1906 Restaurant at Longwood Gardens recognizes the creative work the RA team has been doing. The review has been posted to several sites and pushed to other media outlets.

Amy Strauss of The Town Dish writes "As the area's most impressive local-focused dining establishment, 1906's culinary program complements its surrounding 1,077 lush acres of horticultural artistry, where its chefs source and harvest ingredients on a day-to-day basis."
