

Restaurant Associates' Special Event Catering Division CxRA Catering the Super Bowl When the Bud Light Hotel docked at Terminal 88 on Wednesday, January 29th, you could almost hear the Intrepid heave an eager "Here We Go."

The hotel, a rebranded Norwegian Getaway cruise ship, connected to the Intrepid and turned the aircraft carrier, pier and parking lot across the street into the ultimate party space for some of the city's most anticipated Super Bowl themed events including those hosted by EA Sports, Pandora Radio, Pepsi, Playboy, and Bud Light themselves.

Guest counts ranged from 1,000 to 3,500 and party goers noshed on CxRA favorites including American Pop Miniature Sliders and traditional football fare with a twist such as Panko Crusted Chicken Bites with BBQ Sauce, mini cups of Beef Chili & Cheddar Cheese, Grilled Chicken Taquitos with Creamy Avocado and Spicy Mango and more!

Though the food was without a doubt the star of the four-day show, musical entertainment included The Roots, Imagine Dragons, Zac Brown Band, Foo Fighters, Fall Out Boy and DJ Zedd.
